WHEREAS, the South Kingstown School District is committed to creating a safe, supportive, and welcoming learning environment for all students, regardless of immigration status; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Supreme Court in Plyler v. Doe (1982) held that no public school district may deny children access to education based on their immigration status, citing both the harm it would inflict on the child and society itself and the commands of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment; and

WHEREAS, ensuring that our schools are safe and inviting for all students and their families will facilitate the physical safety and emotional well-being of all children in the District, and is paramount to students' ability to achieve; and

WHEREAS, immigration enforcement activities around schools create hardships and barriers to health and educational attainment, and a pervasive climate of fear, conflict and stress that affect all students in our District, regardless of their background or status; and
